Watterson's Prediction Confirmed

Representative Nicholas Longworth has confirmed the declaration made repeatedly by Henry Watterson, that Roosevelt wanted his man in the White House in order that he might go back as President. Mr. Watterson says:

"Of course, two terms for Taft, and then two more terms for Teddy. That is what son-in-law Nick Longworth says. When the children prattle we get at what the old folks think. The dynastic principle is to be started with Taft. If he can be elected, anybody can be, and once within the portals of the White House, having served his eight years he will gracefully give way, and Roosevelt will come in for life. 'Tis as easy as lying or falling off a log. The 'Big Stick', having done its perfect work once, twice, thrice, can do it as long as it pleases. The steam roller will never lose its power to crush. Yet there is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip. Everything depends upon the result of this Presidential campaign. It is to settle the question whether the people, without money or discipline—the raw militia—can successfully go against organized power, hedged round by a fortress and defended by limitless resources. If they cannot do this now they will never be able to do it. It is written that to every people is given the government which they most deserve. "We shall believe that the people of the United States deserve free government until they themselves order otherwise. This is the last chance they will ever get short of some direful cataclysm to make a change of parties by the simple, lawful and peaceful agencies of the ballot box, and our faith is sure that they will not let it pass them by at the command of 'Big Chief.' "

What About Sherman, Mr. President.

If Theodore Roosevelt is really looking for undesirable public men he need go no further than the Republican national ticket. Let him inquire how many millions of dollars of Indian oil leases have been given away since James Sherman was made chairman of the Committee on Indian affairs of the House of Representatives. Let him find out what the Indians ever got for these leases in excess of a bottle of whisky. Let him find out how many times those leases were given away in some omnibus appropriation bill, and how few were granted in bills whose title stated the contents.

If the Republican party proposes to appeal to the conscience, the patriotism and the incorruptible citizenship of the country it must rid itself of the candidacy of James Sherman or its campaign is a forgery on its face.—Buffalo (N. Y.) Times.

Scared About New York.

Walter Wellman wires from New York to the Chicago Record-Herald as follows:

"Having made extensive inquiries as to the state of public feeling here in New York I deem it my duty to point out that there is nothing sure about the verdict of New York, doubt does exist. The well nigh decisive thirty-nine electoral votes of the State are yet to be fought for. There are elements which threaten unpleasant surprises for those who have settled down into the comfortable belief that the State is safe and sure. It is impossible to study the conditions now existing here without coming to the conclusion that their net effect is to help the Democrats. If we compare the Bryan of 1896 and 1900 with the Bryan of today in the opinions of the people of New York, he has gained tremendously. Evidence of this is found in the well-known indifference of banking and commercial men to the outcome of the present election. Those who are Republicans are as a rule against Bryan, but not savagely. They no longer look upon his possible election as a fore-runner of the national disaster. They are not spending money to defeat him. Many business men who in the Bryan campaign of the past have worked energetically for the Republican ticket will this year stay at home on election day, or vote for Bryan himself."

A Clean Candidate.

The search light has been turned on William Jennings Bryan for the last twelve years, and not a spot or blemish that effects his character has been found. Can that much be said of any other public man who is now prominent in the public eye? One of Mr. Bryan's Republican friends feels that he ought to be preaching the gospel and he told Mr. Bryan that he would vote for him if he was elected, to enter the pulpit when his term of office expired, to which Mr. Bryan responded that a great many Republicans would rather see him in the pulpit than in the White House. A great many Democrats believe he could do God's work in the White House.

They are in a Rage.

The Courier-Journal says: "Next to a woman scorned, Hell hath no fury like a party balked of its prey. The Republicans take the cue from their chief. They too are in a rage. Which ever way they turn defeat stares them in the eye. The Democrats will carry New York by a hundred thousand majority. There is little less than Republican chance in Ohio. In Indiana the Elephant is hopelessly down of Asiatic Cholera. Already Democracy, beginning with Illinois, sweeps the West like a prairie fire. How could it be otherwise in the face of what the President is doing? "Poor Taft! Poor Taft! "Injins on the upper road, And death upon the lower." "

Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good;" and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Trust on your right to have what you call for. Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve-line it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equalled.
